

Center for Nonviolent Communicationsm
Presents an

INTERNATIONAL INTENSIVE TRAINING
USA - Albuquerque, December 05- 14, 2009

Basic Information Sheet (BIS)

PROGRAM: This International Intensive Training (IIT) is a 9-day, Nonviolent Communication “immersion experience.” It is a residential workshop led by a team of experienced CNVC certified trainers. The purpose of this IIT training is to offer people the opportunity to live the process of Nonviolent Communication in community over an extended period of time, in order to develop Nonviolent Communication knowledge, skills and consciousness.

VENUE: Madonna Retreat & Conference Center rests atop the West Mesa and has a panoramic view of the Sandia Mountains, the Rio Grande River, and the City of Albuquerque. One can see spectacular Southwestern sunrises and sunsets. The Center is located eight miles from downtown.

TRAVEL: The nearest airport is Albuquerque Sunport International Airport, about 14 miles. The Madonna Retreat is near highways I-25 and I-40.

Participants are asked to wait until their registration in the IIT has been confirmed before booking travel reservations.

FEE: Total IIT Fees consists of a tuition and accommodation fee. Tuition is standard $1500. No part of the fees is optional or negotiable.
